REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

1. Claims 1-52 are pending

2. The rejection of claims 1-52 under 35 USC 103 has been dropped as applicants remarks are persuasive.

- 3. The prior art discloses that is well known to recycle solvents in epoxidation processes. However, the recycled solvent adds impurities to the process. See for example USP 5,599,955 that makes no mention of the amount of nitrogen in the process. Paparatto recycles solvent to the hydrogen peroxide preparation step and not to the epoxidation step.
- 4. The novelty resides in limiting the amount of nitrogen in the process upon recycling of the solvent. Applicants are limiting the amount of nitrogen in the process to less than 50 wppm (weight parts per million = mg/kg). Faraj (USP 6,042,807) teach the particular zeolite catalyst used in applicants epoxidation process. See abstract, column 1 lines 41-65. However, the Faraj process makes no mention of the amount of nitrogen in the process. See column 5 line 30 thru column 7 line 30.

Paparatto process makes no mention of the amount of nitrogen in the process, only that nitrogen is present. Further, Paparatto makes no distinction between inorganic and organic nitrogen regarding their effect on epoxidation catalyst performance. Here, the amount of organic nitrogen is limited to 50 wppm.

The data on page 20 of the specification is noted. Limiting the amount of nitrogen present in the process results in increased catalyst activity demonstrated by the increased propylene oxide yield.

In view of the art as a whole, the claimed subject matter of limiting the amount of nitrogen in the epoxidation process is neither taught nor suggested. Accordingly the claims are allowed.
